Bromsgrove District

Bromsgrove is a district of Worcestershire located in the northeast of the county.

The district borders the counties of West Midlands Unitary Authority to the north, Warwickshire to the east, Redditch District to the southeast, Wyre Forest District to the west, and Wychavon District to the Southwest.

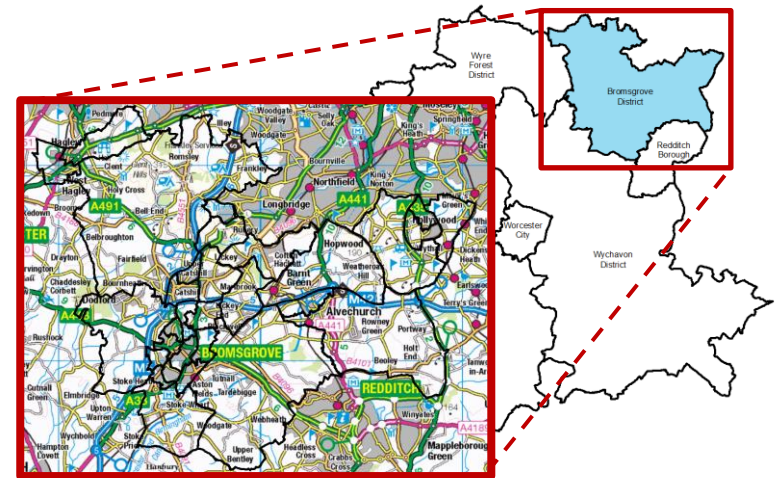

The district has four main towns, Bromsgrove, Hagley, Rubery and Wythall.

Bromsgrove is made up of thirty wards, with the largest wards covering the rural areas of the district and the smaller wards covering the town centres of Bromsgrove, Rubery, and Wythall.

Bromsgrove had a population of 101,685 mid-2023 (NOMIS, 2024). In Summer 2025 there were 3,514 known 0- to 4-year-old children living in the Bromsgrove district registered with a Worcestershire GP.

Known Children data Summer 2025
